

18th March, 2022

The Executive Director

The Director,

CHS.

Sir/ma,

WEEK 10 OF SECOND TERM 2021/2022 ACADEMIC SESSION

Glory be to God in the highest from whom all blessings flow for a new day at CHS. All the students were met in the dining hall.

Breakfast: Of tea with bread and butter was served.

Mentoring: Students stayed back in the dinning to observe mentoring. Teachers joined them after staff briefing to check their note books. This should be sustained and those who have not completed their note books should be made to do so. This ended at 8:20am. Principal please take note.

Hostels: Both male and female hostel was kept clean. Kudos to the house parents.

The house mistress Mercy Habila and house parent Ezekiel Bala have joined the services of the school. Hoping they will work well by God's grace. Amen.

Academic Classes: Commenced from 8:30am to 1:20pm with teachers going into the classes to teach or revise with the students while a few classes like SS1 to SS3 teachers revised the scheme of work of English studies. The following have completed their schemes and are revising past questions; English, Maths, Economics, Civic Education, Government, French, Accounting, (going through the previous schemes thought), Biology, Physics, Geography, Catering Craft Practice, CRS, Literature in English, Tech drawing, Agric and Chemistry.

JAMB: Biology, Physics, Economics, Accounting, Government, Geography, Literature, Chemistry, English Language Teachers are coaching the concerned students during school periods. Wishing our students success in Jesus' name, Amen.

Exam Questions and Marking Scheme: According to the HOD Science Department, Mathematics, Biology, Technical Drawing, Agricultura Science, Basic Tech submitted questions and marking schemes.

Physics, Basic Science and Technology, (PHE submitted questions and marking scheme) submitted questions with uncompiled marking scheme.

Chemistry submitted questions only.

Vocation and Social Science Department: According to the HOD, Commerce, Economics, History, NVE, CRS, Accounting, Business Studies, submitted questions and marking scheme.

Civic, Government, Geography, Home Economics, History, submitted questions and no marking scheme.

CCP, no questions and no marking scheme submitted. She is to submit on Monday.

Principal, all those who refuse to submit marking scheme need to do so latest by Monday next week.

Languages Department: According to the HOD, English Language for Senior and Junior Secondary Schools all have questions and marking scheme.

Literature, all questions and marking scheme submitted.

French JSS1 questions and marking scheme seen. JSS2 is yet to submit questions and marking scheme because he is trying to retype (Mr. Ezekiel) his computer crashed.

French (Mr. Joel) submitted questions and marking scheme. Hausa has questions and marking scheme for all the classes.

Clinic: Zaki was taken home today by the parent before the close of academic periods/lessons. Jemimah was strong and slept on clinic bed after treatment by the Nurse.

Suggestions: I suggestion all the teachers have their flash to always copy from their laptops or desktops incase of crashing of system.

Exam Timetable: Should be on the notice board for all classes Form tutors should ensure this is done. Principal, please take note.

Teachers must have marking schemes for test, exams and assignment questions.

Fellowship: Was held between 1:20pm and 2:10pm

Lunch: Of jollof rice, cole slaw and beef was served.

Conclusion: To God be the glory for a well spent day.

Mrs. Oyekale Grace

Copy;

Principal

Mrs. Adelakun Ruth T.